

Montalcour Rouge is a Côtes du Rhône balanced, round, ample and structured with aromas of red berries. It is a blend = successful marriage between varieties typical of the Rhone Valley: Black Grenache and Syrah. Color: red hardwood, with violet reflections. Nose: complex, consisting of small red fruits (cherry, strawberry wood), with hints of pepper finely. Mouth marked by black fruit (blackberry, blackcurrant), with a beautiful long finish. Tasting: it ideally accompany red meats and white, grilled or in sauce, and cheese.
